(FOOD SUPPLIES.)

Circular dated 18th June 1947.

No. CS. 8-1188—46-47. It has come to the notice of the undersigned that the consumers of Handloom Powerloom and Mill Made Cotton Cloth in Mysore City and District are demanding such cloth from the dealers without the production of their cloth coupons or special permits issued by competent authorities. As the dealers have been prohibited from issuing Cotton Cloth without entering the cloth coupon or special permit numbers on the bills issued by them, to prevent hoarding, black-marketting and smuggling of cloth allotted to the State, all the residents of the District are requested to co-operate with the authorities and obtain supplies on production of the cloth coupons before the dealers for noting down the number on the bills.

Strict instructions have been issued to the dealers not to deduct the quantities of Hand Loom cloth purchased by the consumers from the quantities of Mill and Powerloom cloth allowed to them against their cloth coupons.
